Directions:

From the South Fork of Eastern Long Island: (To South Ferry) some prefer to take the South Ferry to Shelter Island from North Haven which is closer to Sag Harbor and the Hamptons.

• Take Sunrise Highway to Southampton and follow signs to the Shelter Island Ferry.

- On weekends this ferry is open later and runs until about 1:30 AM Friday and Saturday nights.

Cost (cash only):

One Way - $14 for car and driver

Same Day Round Trip - $17 for car and driver

Passengers each way - $1

On Shelter Island: (From South Ferry) • Take Rt. 114 North on Shelter Island

- After the IGA Market look for Historical Site Signs for Quinipet

- Turn Left onto West Neck Road

- Proceed straight through the four way stop

- Drive down the hill and around the bend follow along Crescent Beach to the end

- The Quinipet entrance is on the right just past the big red barn.

Many GPS and Internet Mapping sites have a hard time locating our address.*

We recommend using the 99 Shore Rd. Address to get here, but cannot guarantee success.

 Ferry prices are subject to change; please refer to Ferry Company for current prices.*

North Ferry (631) 749-0139 / South Ferry (631) 749-1200

From the North Fork of Eastern Long Island: (To North Ferry)

The North Ferry is easily found and the quickest route to Shelter Island from Eastern Long Island.

• Take the LI Expressway (I-495) to Riverhead.

- In Riverhead, take Rt. 58 to Rt. 25 East

- In Greenport, follow signs for Shelter Island Ferry

Cost (cash only):

One Way - $10 for car and driver

Same Day Round Trip - $15 for car and driver

Passengers each way - $2

On Shelter Island: (From North Ferry) • Take Rt. 114 South on Shelter Island

- Approximately 1 mile, turn right onto West Neck Road

- Proceed straight through the four way stop

- Drive down the hill and around the bend follow along Crescent Beach to the end

- The Quinipet entrance is on the right, just past the big, red barn.
